Peer review notes / general feedback

Are there any areas within this work that could be improved or is missing / incomplete?

The part of trend page is still missing at present. I suggest that more detailed pictures of products can be put in the page, and the layout can be more concise, which is more conducive for others to watch the content of trend page. In addition, sds homework for cover making and two classes of London Fashion Week have not been completed yet.

What are the strengths within this work; what does this student do really well?

xinyu has a high aesthetic for collage, and can skillfully use photoshop, ID, AI and other software to create interesting special effects in the process of page completion.

Is this work ready for submission?   Yes / No(NO)

What BA specialism do you think this work shows suitability in?

    In my opinion, xinyu's works tend to styling and promotion. In this assignment, she has demonstrated her strong ability of clothing collocation.

Other comments: